Dear FOIA Officer / Doncaster City Council,

I hope this message finds you well.

I am writing to request guidance on who I should contact within the Integrated Care Board (ICB) to explore opportunities for collaboration and to better understand the requirements for supported living accommodation in Doncaster and surrounding areas. Additionally, I would appreciate it if you could provide the contact details for the relevant commissioner for supported living in Doncaster.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I kindly request the following information:

1. A list of registered providers, housing associations, and community interest companies currently involved in delivering supported living accommodation in Doncaster and the surrounding areas of South Yorkshire.
2. Any publicly available reports, statistics, or data relating to the current or projected demand for supported living accommodation in this region.

Please do not hesitate to contact me via this email should you require any clarification regarding my request. I appreciate your time and assistance and look forward to your response.

Kind regards,
